

6516204820.txt

As an X M Radio listener, I use the traffic and weather channels to find out conditions that improve the efficiency and safety of myself and the motoring public around me!

I was never able to always get this information from am and fm radio stations as I am usually beyond my local area and have to hunt for the information. I hope you at the FCC will realize the improved safety of americas highways as more and more truck drivers are able to get up to date information via XM.